

"Here's mud in your eye" may be the word at happy hour—but skip any sudden action when you fill up your Huey.

Talkin' about latching the closed circuit refueling receiver after a gravity fueling chore.

Never flip the locking cover closed or you'll splash JP-4 right in your eyes...smarts somethin' awful and means a trip to the dispensary.

S-l-o-w-l-y does it when pulling the adapter cable—until the adapter is closed.
