

Save the Slider!

If support just spruced up your Huey with an infrared paint job, focus on the cargo door track—right away!

That paint is as rough as a cob. Fact is, it'll wear out the slider in just a few trips down the rail.

So, just take some sandpaper and go down the top edge of the bottom rail...each side of your aircraft.

That'll save the slider.

